CAUSE OF DEATH must be stated plainly and fully. Use no abbreviations or terms of doubtful meaning. Indefinite statements, such as "Heart Failure," "Exhaustion," "Septicemia," "Pneumonia," "Tuberculosis," "Cancer," "Paralysis," "Convulsions," "Fever," "Old Age," "Dropsy," "Childbirth," "Accident," "Fracture," "Drowning," "Hemorrhage," "Suicide," "Homicide," are insufficient. Indicate the primary cause, secondary, if any, and the contributory, if any. Do not report symptoms, modes of dying, or conditions resulting from causes stated. Write plainly with pen and ink and report cause of death as directed on the other side. Use the International List of Causes of Death. Be sure to answer every question. Omissions cause unnecessary correspondence and delay. Please write in ink. Do not use pencil. Sign and return certificate promptly. See instructions on back of certificate.

CAUSE OF DEATH in plain terms, so that any one may understand it. Name of disease alone insufficient. Indefinite terms, such as "Debility," "Old Age," etc., should be avoided. If from violence, state the MEANS and whether ACCIDENTAL, SUICIDAL, or HOMICIDAL. If from disease of a woman, state whether single, married, or widowed. If from disease peculiar to children, state whether legitimate or illegitimate. Every question should be answered as far as practicable. The more complete and accurate the answers, the more valuable the certificate. Physicians are requested to fill out these certificates in every case. Their importance. See instructions on back of certificate.

State CAUSE OF DEATH in plain terms, so that a non-medical person can understand it. Do not use abbreviations or initials. Do not state mode of dying, such as heart failure, asthenia, etc., but what disease caused such failure, asthenia, etc. When death is due to external causes, whether accident, suicide or homicide, state the accident, suicide or homicide, state the means of injury, as fall, gunshot wound, etc., and the nature of injury, as fracture of skull, laceration of brain, etc. Whether injury was inflicted before or during or after work and the exact place of occurrence should be stated. If from accident in any trade or process of manufacture, this fact should be stated. If any surgical operation was performed, the date should be given. If death occurred in a hospital or institution, the full name and street address should be given. If the deceased was a married woman, the name of her husband should be given. If a child, the name of the father. If a widow, the name of her husband. If a minor, the name of father or mother. If a stillborn child, or if the child died before it was named, the word "stillborn" should be entered. If the deceased was a soldier, sailor or marine, or a member of the National Guard, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a veteran of any war, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any fraternal society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any labor union, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any church, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any club, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any other organization, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any political party, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any religious denomination, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any secret society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any benevolent society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any mutual benefit society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any insurance society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any trade union, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any professional society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any scientific society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any literary society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any musical society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any athletic society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any social society, the fact should be stated. If the deceased was a member of any other society, the fact should be stated.
